

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
WESTERN DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,  Plaintiff,  vs.  JUSTIN COYLE,  Defendant.	5:20-CR-50110-JLV-03   AMENDED REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION

This matter came before the court for a change of plea hearing on May 20, 2022. The Defendant, Justin Coyle, appeared in person and by his court-appointed counsel, Paul Eisenbraun, while the United States appeared by its Assistant United States Attorney.

The defendant consented in open court to the change of plea before a United States magistrate judge. This court finds that the defendant's consent was voluntary and upon the advice of counsel. The government also consented to the plea hearing before a magistrate judge. Further, the parties waived their right to object to the report and recommendation.

Defendant has reached a plea agreement wherein he intends to plead guilty to the Superseding Information which charges him with conspiracy to distribute a controlled substance, in violation of 21 U.S.C. §§ 846, 841(a)(1), and 841(b)(1)(B). At the hearing, the defendant was advised of the nature of the charges to which the defendant would plead guilty and the maximum penalties applicable, specifically: a mandatory minimum of five (5) years up to forty (40) years in prison; a $5,000,000 fine; or both; four (4) years supervised release; three (3) additional years' imprisonment if supervised release is revoked; a $100 special assessment; and restitution.

Upon questioning the defendant personally in open court, it is the finding of the court that the defendant is fully competent and capable of entering an informed plea, that the defendant is aware of the nature of the charges and the consequences of the plea, and that his plea of guilty to the Superseding Information is a knowing and voluntary plea supported by an independent basis in fact containing each of the essential elements of the offense. The defendant's guilty plea to the Superseding Information is accepted. It is my report and recommendation that the defendant be adjudged guilty of that offense.

DATED this 23rd day of May, 2022.
